

Mauro Petrone

Mauro Petrone has more than 20 years of experience in O&M, testing and calibration of optical particle counters, T&RH and air velocity sensors as product specialist first at Alco Industries and subsequently at Qualified Services. Since year 2001 he works as general manager and technical director at Qualified Services in the field of cleanroom testing and validations, on field environmental monitoring tasks, instruments calibrations and GMP procedure validations as well as risk analysis for pharma, electronics, food industries as well as hospital facilities.

He is an active member of ASCCA.